

THE IRB'S SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR VOLUNTARY DISCLOSURE A BRIEFING BY THE IRB & RDL'S TAX TEAM

The Special Program for Voluntary Disclosure (Special Program) for eligible taxpayers was announced following the 2019 Budget. It is offered to encourage taxpayers to make voluntary disclosure in reporting their income and paying tax within the limited stipulated period, namely 3rd November 2018 - 30th June 2019. A first for Malaysia, the Special Program is particularly significant bearing in mind the implementation of the Common Reporting Standard on 30th September 2018, whereby the IRB will have information on taxpayers' foreign bank accounts and other property abroad.

One would ask: Is this an opportunity or a trap?

To answer the questions on Why, When and How, RDL has organised a briefing for clients. Hear from top officials from the IRB's Large Taxpayer branch as well as from RDL's tax team.
