

CORPORATE LIABILITY ON CORRUPTION
MECHANISMS PROTECTING DIRECTORS, MANAGERS & COMPANY

DATE : 16 October 2019 (Wednesday)
TIME : 9.00am - 4.00pm
VENUE : CRYSTAL CROWN HOTEL, PJ
FEE PER PAX : RM850 (Early bird RM699)
Facilitator : Mr P K Chew

Program Highlights

- (i) Basic provisions of the MACC Act
- (ii) Why the need for Corporate Liability
  - The MACC (Amendment) Act 2018 Sec 17A as a strict liability offence on the Corporation and the penalty on conviction;
  - Will you be liable as a “Associated Person” or a “Member of the top Management”
- (iii) What are your defenses under the new provisions
- (iv) The UK experience under the UK Bribery Act
- (v) Understanding the elements of Section 17A
- (vi) Levels of liability under Section 17A
- (vii) Adequate Procedures as a “DEFENSE”
- (viii) Guidelines on “ADEQUATE PROCEDURES”
- (ix) Setting up Anti-Bribery Management System
- (x) No more business as usual for Malaysian companies

SBL
claimable

MR P K Chew

Chew P K has been practising corporate and commercial law since his call to the Malaysia Bar in 1987. He is a graduate of the law faculty of University of Malaya with an LLB(Hons) and an LLM degree from the same university.

He is currently a Senior Partner in a law firm of Raja, Darryl & Loh in Kuala Lumpur. Through his involvement with Transparency International Malaysia in which he is a former Executive Committee Member.

He is active in advocating advancement in the anti-corruption laws of Malaysia including the soon to be enforced new Section 17A on Corporate Liability in the MACC Act 2009.

He is also a regular speaker on corporate or commercial matters.

