The Malaysian Competition Act 2010 came into force on 1st January 2012 and it applies to all commercial activities within and outside of Malaysia, as long as these activities have an impact on competition in the Malaysian market.

In this 1-hour session, we aim to provide an overview of the Competition Act 2010, what are the types of anti-competitive practices and abuses of dominant position, the general process and procedures of an investigation by the Malaysia Competition Commission and finally, where we are today in terms of enforcement of the law.
